Good Health Can't Wait

Patients need solutions, and we find them.
As a subsidiary of Dr Reddy's Laboratories, we are committed to improving quality of life. With innovative and cost-effective solutions - from prescription generics to innovative medical devices and biopharmaceuticals to freely available medicines - we contribute to better healthcare. In doing so, we always act in line with our sustainability goals. We are looking for dynamic and empathetic individuals who share our vision and want to make a positive contribution to society.

Diversity, equity and inclusion are not just words for us, but values we live by.

We are convinced that people with different abilities who are united by a common goal and shared values can achieve great things.
